DESCRIPTION

This full-sized sheep is a charming handmade piece from the 1980s, both decorative and playful. With a solid wood structure, a stylised black head, and a long fleece made of real wool, it draws the eye while adding a soft, friendly presence.

Strong and stable, it can be used as a small occasional seat or simply as a decorative object in a living room, children's bedroom or quirky space. Its endearing look and careful craftsmanship make it a warm and original accent piece.
