DESCRIPTION

Pair of Tulip model chairs designed by French designer Pierre Guariche in the mid-1950s. With their sleek silhouette and bold design, these chairs perfectly capture the essence of 1950s modernism. Crafted from high-quality aluminum, they combine lightness and durability, offering exceptional comfort and longevity.

The chairs feature a molded aluminum frame, a signature design element of Guariche, resting on four black lacquered metal legs.

Manufacturer : Maison du Monde, Circa 2013
