DESCRIPTION

Swivel armchair designed by Gerard van den Berg in the 1980s and produced by Montis in the Netherlands.

The chair features a deep seat and a high, slightly reclined backrest providing an enveloping level of comfort. It rests on a central metal swivel base. The armchair is fully upholstered in black full-grain leather using Montis' Jacket system, identifiable by a removable leather cover mounted with zipper fastening. This construction allows precise leather tension and a clear expression of the structure.

The piece reflects Gerard van den Berg's approach for Montis, combining comfort, technical innovation and an honest use of materials.

Seat height : 18.1 inches.

Manufacturer: Montis

Country: Netherlands
