DESCRIPTION

SCAL Daybed by Jean Prouvé, version with swiveling tablet designed in collaboration with Charlotte Perriand.

Black lacquered metal frame. Black cotton-upholstered mattress creating a sharper, more architectural contrast with the structure. The piece highlights Prouvé's constructive rigor, while the pivoting side tablet developed with Charlotte Perriand introduces a refined functional element characteristic of mid-1950s research.

Edition: Steph Simon, circa 1955.
