DESCRIPTION

"Campbell's Soup Can" stool conceived by Dino Gavina in 1971 and produced by Ultramobile Simon, identified as "Omaggio a Warhol" on its original label.

Made of painted and screen-printed metal, it reproduces the Campbell's soup can imagery made famous by Andy Warhol. Its removable lid allows it to be used as a stool, occasional table or storage container.

Dino Gavina thus brought one of Pop Art's most recognizable images into furniture design, within the context of Italian design experimentation in the early 1970s.

Manufacturer: Ultramobile Simon, 1971.
