DESCRIPTION

Pair of Clam Boxes designed by Alan Fletcher in the late 1960s, published by Mebel in Italy.

Made of moulded plastic, these two identical shells interlock via a simple serrated system. The black and white contrast enhances their organic form and highlights their graphic presence. Somewhere between practical object and miniature sculpture, they reflect the pop approach to everyday design.

Each piece is signed: "Mebel, Italy, des. A. Fletcher"

Manufacturer : Mebel, Italy, circa 1970.
