DESCRIPTION

Sculpture depicting a rooster, made of blown and filigree Murano glass by master glassmaker Licio Zanetti in the 1970s.

The piece features blended amber and red tones with delicate twisted canework creating subtle inner patterns. The elongated body rests on cast gilt brass legs, while the red glass head and comb catch the light beautifully. This work perfectly embodies Venetian expertise in animal glass art, balancing stylization and technical mastery.

Manufacturer: Zanetti Murano, Italy, circa 1970.
