DESCRIPTION

Set of four Bauche chairs designed by Charlotte Perriand around 1940. This particular set is an early edition, crafted by the Bureau de Coordination du Bois (BCC).

Constructed from solid pine, these chairs reflect Perriand's distinctive raw, functional aesthetic. With an angled backrest and a wide seat, they combine robust design with exceptional comfort. Inspired by alpine influences, their clean, simple lines bring a warm and authentic character to any interior, blending rustic charm with timeless appeal.

Manufacturer: Bureau de Coordination du Bois (BCC), circa 1949.
