DESCRIPTION

Modernist daybed designed by Swedish designer Bengt Ruda in the 1960s, showcasing a design emblematic of its era.

Constructed with a teak frame supported by four tapered legs, the head and footboard exhibit a crisscross pattern in lacquered black metal. The button-tufted mattress has been reupholstered with Mont Blanc wool by Maison Nobilis, and rests atop original springs in excellent condition.

These daybeds epitomize elegance, thoughtful design, and functionality, making them a charming addition to any interior. Two units are available for individual purchase.

Manufacturer: Triva - NK Verkstader Nykoping, Sweden, circa 1960.
