DESCRIPTION

An iconic creation by Charlotte Perriand, the Orcières stools were designed in 1967, initially crafted in black-stained ash for the interiors of Les Arcs. This version, rendered in natural ash, beautifully showcases the wood's organic texture and warmth.

The design features a robust structure of four rounded legs, joined by an elegant X-shaped stretcher, supporting a gently curved seat woven from natural straw, combining simplicity and functionality.

Manufacturer : Robert Sentou, circa 1967.

Seat height: 45 cm
