DESCRIPTION

This small solid pine stool stands out for its simple lines and traditional joinery. The square seat, with a central opening, rests on a mortise-and-tenon base that reflects artisanal craftsmanship rooted in regional furniture traditions.

Its aged pine shows warm tones and natural knots, lending the piece an honest, timeless presence. With a rustic alpine spirit, this stool fits beautifully into natural, minimalist, or curated interiors.

Handcrafted.
France, circa 1960.
