DESCRIPTION

Designed by Pierre Chapo in 1974, the S31 stool is one of the designer's most recognizable creations. It reflects his philosophy of combining solid wood construction, precise joinery and understated forms.

Crafted from solid elm, it features a gently rounded circular seat resting on a tripod base with interconnected legs. The balance between clean geometry and meticulous craftsmanship is characteristic of Chapo's furniture.

Manufacturer: Meubles Chapo, circa 1980.
