DESCRIPTION

Lampadaire model "MPC" "Merci Pierre Chareau," designed by Gilles Derain circa 1980.

This remarkable floor lamp is inspired by the famous architect Pierre Chareau and stands out with its bold torii-shaped silhouette, a traditional Japanese structure symbolizing the entrance to a sacred space. Its metal blade-shaped base and round-section stem support the curved halogen reflector, carefully integrated into the upper part, allowing it to diffuse a soft and functional light.

The balance of proportions creates a harmony between geometry and lightness, and the use of modern materials reflects Derain's innovative approach.

Manufacturer : Lumen Center, circa 1980.
