DESCRIPTION

Pair of wall-mounted storage units designed by Didier Rozaffy for Meubles Oscar in the 1950s.

Rectangular in form, these solid oak modules are fitted with sliding black and white glass doors, offering a clean and functional appearance. Their refined lines and precise construction reflect the post-war modernist approach to modular furniture.

During this period, Meubles Oscar developed innovative systems designed to adapt to a variety of interiors, allowing elements to be freely combined and arranged. The company was awarded a silver medal at the 10th Milan Triennale in 1953.

The pieces retain a beautiful original patina, with visible signs of use consistent with age.

Manufacturer: Meubles Oscar, circa 1955.
