

Small amber blown glass vessel by Claude Morin, Dieulefit circa 1970

Claude Morin

120

REF: 7488

Height: 8 cm (3.1")

Diameter: 12.5 cm (4.9")

DESCRIPTION

Small blown glass vessel by Claude Morin, the French artist based in Dieulefit during the 1970s and a key figure in the renewal of glass art in France.

Made in amber-brown glass, this small piece has a simple rounded and open form. The subtle irregularities and fine bubbles in the material highlight the artisanal craftsmanship and give the piece a unique character.

Signed underneath the base: Morin Dieulefit.