DESCRIPTION

Nathalie Du Pasquier is a prolific artist and designer, renowned for her pivotal role as a member of the Memphis group, whose groundbreaking creations defined the design landscape of the 1980s.

This multicolored lacquered wood table mirror, dating back to around 1985, is a striking showcase of her talent and distinctive aesthetic. Produced in a limited edition for the magazine La Donna, it serves as a tribute to the journalists associated with the publication. However, its commemorative nature meant that it was never made commercially available.
