"Cansado" Sideboard, designed by Charlotte Perriand in 1957.

Originally conceived for the mining town of Cansado in Mauritania, this sideboard reflects Charlotte Perriand's mastery of functional elegance and minimalist design. Its mahogany-veneered structure is defined by two sliding doors in striking black and white contrast, complemented by four lateral drawers for optimal storage. Elevated by a black lacquered metal base, the piece achieves a perfect balance between solidity and visual lightness, embodying the modernist spirit of its time.
