DESCRIPTION

In 2007, Driade celebrates its long artistic partnership with Philippe Starck, starting in 1984. Starck's project includes various furniture pieces like tables, chairs, and mirror-libraries, inspired by both French design traditions and his futuristic vision.

A standout in the collection is the mirror-library FRAME, known for its elegant simplicity. Made with a natural mahogany wood frame and swiveling glass shelves, it effortlessly serves as both a mirror and a library, showcasing a versatile blend of style and function.

Each piece in this series is released in a limited edition. This piece shows number 12/30
